

Empowering Money Beliefs

1. Money doesn't grow on trees

Money flows to me from infinite sources, expected and unexpected.

2. Money is the root of all evil

Money is a force for good, and I use it to create positive impact in the world.

3. I will lose my family &/or friends if I become rich

The more abundant I become, the more love, joy, and generosity I share with my family and friends.

4. We can't afford that

I always have more than enough to buy, enjoy, and invest in what I truly desire.

5. I don't deserve to have more or be wealthy

I am worthy of infinite abundance, wealth, and success simply by being me.

6. Living a rich life is not important

Living a rich, abundant life is my birthright, and it allows me to thrive and uplift others.

7. Money doesn't make you happy

Money amplifies my happiness, freedom, and opportunities to create more joy in life.

8. I MUST work hard in order to live a rich & abundant life

Wealth flows to me with ease, joy, and alignment—I prosper while living in balance and flow.

9. I can never see how I can become as rich as the wealthy people around me

I am expanding into limitless wealth, and I am as worthy and capable as anyone of being abundantly rich.

10. Being rich will change me

Becoming rich amplifies my true self—I remain grounded, kind, and generous while enjoying abundance.

11. Clients can't afford my products

 My ideal clients always have the money and happily invest in my products and services.

12. Clients don't have the money to pay me for my products / services

 The right clients joyfully pay me in full because they deeply value the transformation I provide.

13. There is hardly any demand for my products

 There is an abundance of demand for my products, and clients are excited to buy from me consistently.

14. The economy is facing a downturn

 The economy always has opportunities, and I thrive and prosper regardless of external conditions.

15. Times are tough

 Times are always abundant for me—I create wealth, joy, and opportunity in every season.